INDEX OF BEATEN HORSES.

In the ensuing index the names of all horses beaten in the races of which summaries are given in the body of the work appear in alphabetical order. The description of each animal follows his name, and next, inclosed in parenthesis, is his best record to the close of the year 1883. Pedigrees are given when known, and when not printed in the body of the work. The figures which follow the record of a horse, as a rule, denote the pages of the book on which he appears as a beaten performer. If a page-reference is inclosed in parenthesis it signifies that the horse obtained his best record in a race on the page corresponding to the parenthended numbers. If an asterisk is attached to a page reference it signifies that the name of the horse will be found more than once on that page.

INDEX OF SIRES.

In the following Index the names of the sires of performers are arranged alphabetically, and the breeding of each horse, on the side of sire and dam, given when known. The ensuing figures denote the pages of the book, either in the Record itself or in the Index of Beaten Horses, upon which the stallion in question appears as a sire of a trotter or pacer. When an asterisk is affixed to a figure it signifies that the name of the sire appears more than once upon the page to which reference is made. It should be understood that in this Index, as well as throughout the work, when the name of an owner does not accompany that of a stallion which is common to a number of horses, the most celebrated stallion of that name is intended. Thus, American Star signifies Seely's American Star; Abdallah, Treadwell's Abdallah; Belmont, Alexander's Belmont; Blue Bull, Wilson's Blue Bull; Hambletonian, Rysdyk's Hambletonian; Idol, Aker's, formerly Peck's, Idol, etc. Information as to errors or deficiencies in this Index will be thankfully received by the compiler at P. O. Box 1021, New York City.
